

Good day all!

First off I wanted to say thanks for the last 4 years of employment here at MegaCorp. With the exception of Tom I have enjoyed all of my coworkers here immensely.

I have decided that life is too short though and have decided to pursue my dreams of becoming a backwoodsman and will be relocating to a mountain range in the interior of British Columbia several hours from civilization. There I plan to live off of the land while hunting a variety of animals for sustenance and crafting my clothes from their hides. It will not be an easy life but I am looking forward to the adventures and carving a name out for myself in the chronicles of our great country.

If you wish to maintain any contact with me you will need to come to the trails head at St. Augustus lake and take a 3day hike in by mule.

Don't worry about any stale cake or a going away speech, I'm A-OK....unless it's an Icecream cake from Dairy Queen...those are pretty awesome...a 6 pack of beer would be nice too but not required.

You can expect an almost immediate decrease in both the quality and quantity of my work but I will still be available until Wednesday, March 23rd. After my departure don't hesitate to reach out to me if anything else is required.

Thanks,

Some guy

PS: I'm not taking my chair but don't let anyone use it.
